

Art Rental Program

Thank you for your interest in my new approach to providing art to businesses without the typical high-cost that may be associated with purchasing a piece of art. In addition to providing the pieces of art, my goal is to always "pay-it-forward" by donating a portion of any proceeds to a cause of your choice. I will be donating 15% of any money received to a pre-determined cause of the businesses' choice.

The program is based on a 6-month rental agreement in which at the end of the term the business may choose to:

- Purchase the artwork at a pre-determined price
- Select another piece of art to display
- Continue displaying the existing piece of art

Pricing is based on two main factors, print vs. original and size of the artwork. If desired, I would visit your place of business and walk the space to suggest size and type of art that would work the best.

Artist Biography

Integrating her talent as an Architect and Figure Artist, Alison Poland exhibits her innate ability to bring to life our structural surroundings. Alison uses a colorful combination of charcoal and paint to dramatize and accentuate rudimentary details that would go unnoticed without her artistic attention and unique perspective on life.

In addition to her education as an architect and an artist at the University of Maryland, Alison has instructed at The Corcoran College of Art and Design, participated in the 9/11 memorial competition, and mentors inspiring artists throughout the DC, MD and TN areas. Her work has been published through several organizations including: The Corcoran Gallery of Art, The Smithsonian, MD Public TV, Women in the News, Health Magazine and the United States Army Corps of Engineers.

Further, Alison had her first solo, public, art show in DC that successfully sold out and raised money for Ovarian Cancer Research. As a result, Alison is now offering limited edition prints of her first show and an art rental program to benefit noteworthy causes. Ask Artist for details.

Alison recently moved from Washington, DC to Nashville and for more information on her art or to inquire about other pieces, visit www.paintedwhitecanvas.com.
